constable's posse, three negroes have been killed and seven or eight wounded. None of the posse was hurt in the fight, which took place near Fecan Grove plantation in St. Charles Parish. The surviving negroes and their white leader, Pat McGee, fied to the swamps and are being searched for. Further trouble is feared.

McGee and the negroes have been working for the Mississippi Valley Railroad. Several days ago complaint was lodged that some of them had contracted debts and refused to pay. Charges were made and Constable Songy went out to see the negroes.

On his way he met John Hinds, a negro assistant of McGee, who covered him with a shotgun and commanded him to keep away from the camp. Songy returned to St. Rose and organized a posse. Near the camp the posse encountered eighteen of the negroes and the fighting followed.

If it is decided to strike the men will probably keep the time secret and go out without warning. When the plan of strike was discussed last spring it was agreed to walk out just before the evening rush hour, leaving the hundreds of thousands of patrons stranded and dinnerless miles from their homes. The men figured that the outbreak of popular indignation would be fierce enough to force the Company to terms in a very few hours.

Vice-President Bryan was in conference with August Belmont, President of the Interborough Company, to-day for nearly an hour. Following the conference. Mr. Bryan was asked if he had anything to say regarding the strained situation, and Mr. Bryan, through his secretary, said:
